

Worried about a friend?

Follow the same advice in this booklet. It is great to keep our friends safe.

Will you keep my worries a secret?

We can't promise to keep a secret, but we won't tell other people about your worries unless we have to.

Some problems are too big for us to deal with in school and might need us to speak to other people who can help.

We won't tell anyone your problems unless they can help, and we will always tell you who we are talking to and why.

Who else can help?

You can call ChildLine for free
