

An At Home Family Retreat for

Holy Week

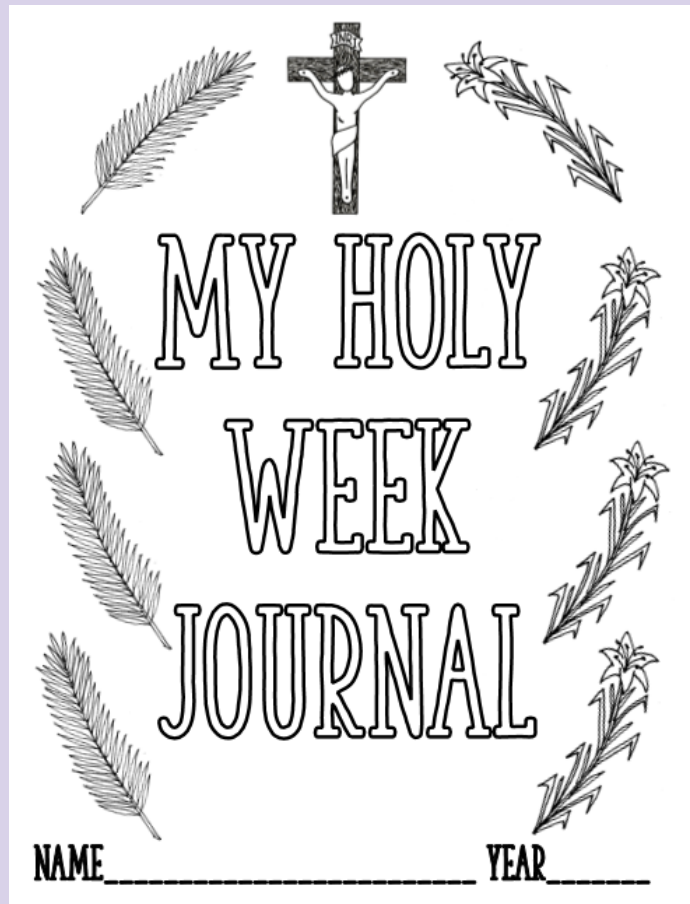

This Holy Week will be like no other in living memory. Our churches are closed and we are compelled to stay at home as much as possible to prevent the spread of Covid-19. For many of us, not being able to participate in the liturgical services of the Easter Triduum will be a source of great sadness. We are, however, fortunate that modern communications enable us to join with others via live-streaming of Mass and devotions. That is a great blessing.

This At Home Family Retreat is designed to help you and your families join together to pray, to read and reflect upon scripture as you journey with Christ this Holy Week. There are links to the daily Mass readings and a range of activities for children, young people and parents.

The symbol  shows that the video is suitable to younger children, many of these are animations, whereas  indicates that the video is more appropriate for older children (upper KS2 and above).

There are links to all the online resources but should you have a problem accessing them, those marked  are also on the final pages of this presentation, so you can copy and paste them into a document for printing. Other links can also be found in the Acknowledgments slide at the end of this presentation. Before starting the retreat, please take a moment to look through all the slides so you know what is there.

Despite being socially isolated from each other, through praying and sharing together may we come to know ever more deeply that we are never alone since Christ is always with us. May this Holy Week be a time of blessings for us all.

LECTIO DIVINA (HOLY READING)

Read the text, out loud if you are able, then read it though again in silence, 2 or 3 times. “Chew over” the words in your mind, allowing yourself to sit with them. Perhaps a particular word, or phrase, will strike you, but don’t worry if it doesn’t. Read the text aloud again, “chew over”, or allow the words to wash over you, for another while. A prayer or a thought may come to you which you can carry with you through the day. End with the Our Father and the Sign of the Cross.

If you are keeping a Holy Week Journal, the suggestions below may be helpful.

Lectio Read

Read several times, be attentive to detail
Note verses or phrases that stand out to you
Work to understand meaning and background

Journal Starters:

- In this passage...
- My favorite verse was...
- I noticed...

Meditatio Meditate

Think about the reading and connect to your life
Imagine being present to hear the passage or witness the story

Journal Starters:

- This reminds me of...
- If I were there...
- I can connect this story to...

Oratio Pray

Dialogue with God in prayer about the passage
Thank God for His Word
Ask Him to lead you into deeper understanding

Journal Starters:

- Dear Jesus...
- Thank you God for...
- Please help me understand...

Contemplatio Contemplate

Quiet expression of love between you and God
Note what God is trying to teach you through the passage and time of prayer

Journal Starters:

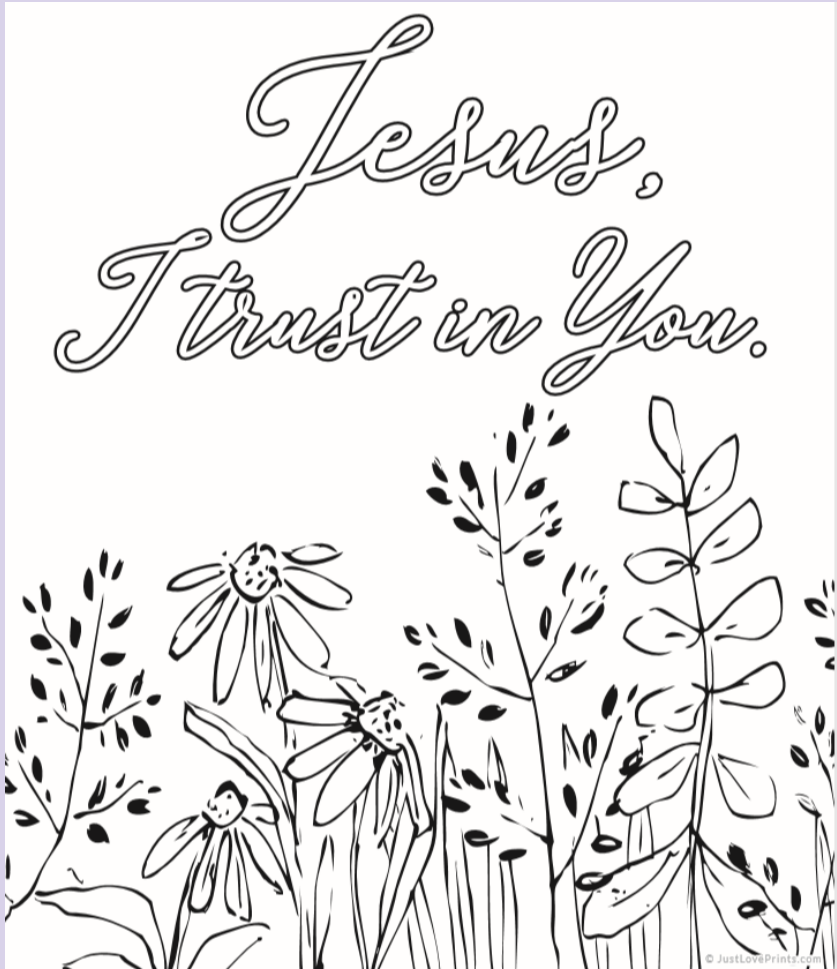

- I think Jesus is teaching me...
- Lord, I love you for...
- I believe...

SCRIPTURE CARDS

If a word or phrase strikes you during Lectio Divina or any other time, take the time to write it down. You could decorate it or keep it quite simple. Whatever you choose to do will be the right way for you - there is no right or wrong way! You may wish to keep the cards together in a Scripture Jar. An empty (washed!) food jar is ideal for this. Most of all give thanks for the gift of these words and enjoy being creative as you pray.

This is Holy Week – Spy Wednesday

This week is called Holy Week, when we remember the last days of Jesus's life on earth before he died on the cross on Good Friday and rose to new life on Easter Sunday. Read the Bible passage below to answer the questions and complete the word search.

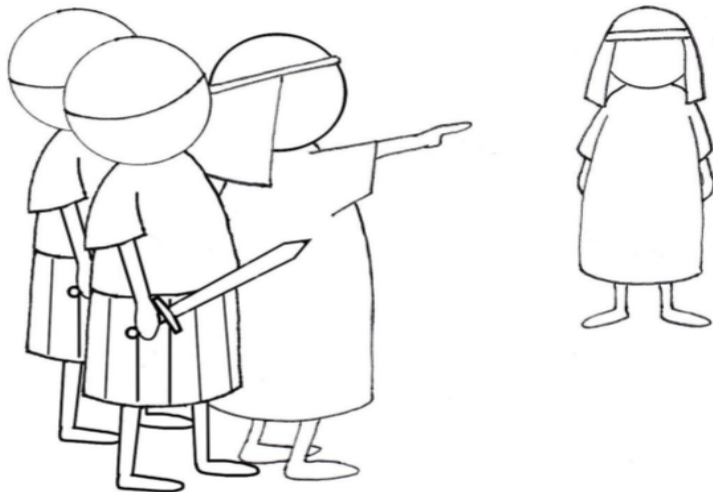

It was almost time for the Jewish Feast of Passover. The leading priests and teachers of the law were trying to find a way to kill Jesus. But they were afraid of the people.

They were delighted and agreed to give Judas money. Judas agreed. Then he waited for the best time to betray Jesus without the people knowing.

This is Holy Week – Holy Thursday

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. This meal is known as the Last Supper.

It was a sad time. Jesus knew he was about to die and he told the disciples many things, especially, that he loved them. Jesus took a bowl of water and bent down to wash their feet and dry them with a towel.

The disciples were surprised because this was a job for the servants. Peter tried to stop Jesus. But Jesus explained, "I have set you an example. You must serve one another, just as I have served you."

At the meal Jesus broke the bread, gave thanks to God for it and gave it to his disciples. He said, "This is my body, given for you. Do this in memory of me." Then he took a cup of wine, thanked God for it and shared it with his disciples, saying, "This is my blood, poured out for you. Drink it in memory of me."

This is Holy Week – Good Friday

When Jesus was in the garden praying, Judas entered with the soldiers. They arrested Jesus and took him to the High Priest's house. The High Priest and Temple leaders wanted to put Jesus to death because he had said that God was his Father. But they needed permission from the Romans.

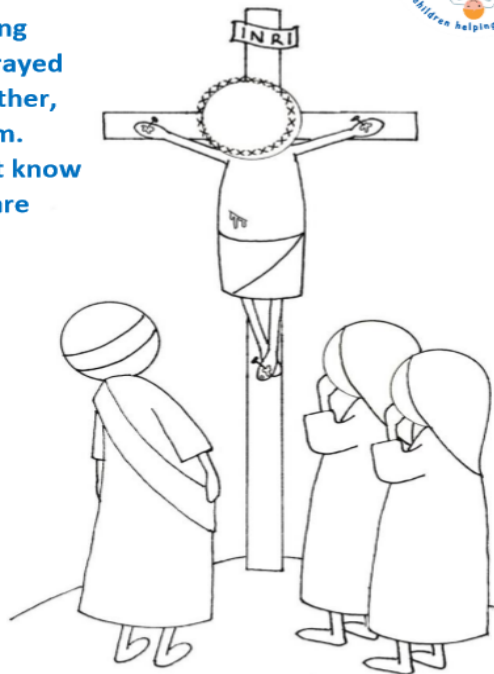

So the soldiers led Jesus to the Roman Governor, Pontius Pilate. But Pilate could not find any fault with Jesus. Instead he had him flogged, the soldiers placed a crown of thorns on his head and they mocked him.

But the crowd persisted, shouting at Pilate, "Crucify him". Finally, Pilate gave in. Bloodied and tired, Jesus took up the heavy wooden cross and carried it to a hill called Golgotha. Here, soldiers nailed Jesus' hands and feet to the cross.

As Jesus hung there, he prayed to God, "Father, forgive them. They do not know what they are doing." Later that afternoon, Jesus cried out, "It is finished." He hung his head and died.

As Jesus hung there, he prayed to God, "Father, forgive them. They do not know what they are doing."

This is Holy Week – Holy Saturday

There was a kind follower of Jesus, a rich man called Joseph of Arimathea, who went to Pilate and asked for Jesus's body. Pilate agreed. Joseph wrapped the body in linen cloths and laid it in a tomb, which had been carved out of the rock.

Then he asked for a great stone rolled across the entrance to the tomb. The women who loved Jesus followed and watched.

The next day Pilate ordered his soldiers to guard the tomb for three days. Some of those who had wanted Jesus killed were worried that the disciples would secretly steal Jesus's body and pretend that he was alive.

This was because they remembered that Jesus had said, "After three days I will rise again."

'Joseph was a good, religious man. He wanted the kingdom of God to come.'

This is Holy Week – Easter Sunday

It was just before dawn on Sunday, when suddenly there was a great earthquake. An angel came from heaven and rolled back the stone. His clothing was white as snow. The guards were terrified and ran away.

When Mary Magdalene and the other Mary arrived, they saw the tomb wide open and Jesus's body had gone. The angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus. He is not here; he has been raised, just as he said. Go and tell his disciples, 'He has been raised from the dead, and you will see him soon.'"

The women were scared but joyful as they ran to tell the disciples. Suddenly, Jesus greeted them. They approached him, bowed down and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; tell my friends that you have seen me."
