

Different Roles in Bullying

The target:
is the person at whom the bullying is aimed.

The ringleader:
initiates and leads the bullying.

The assistant:
is actively involved in 'doing' the bullying but does not lead it.

The reinforcer:
supports the bullying, might laugh or encourage what's going on but doesn't 'do' it.

The defender:
stands up for someone being bullied. Knows that bullying is wrong and feels confident enough to defend. They might talk to an adult in school.

The outsider:
ignores or doesn't see the bullying and doesn't want to get involved.

Be a defender!

Bullying is unkind and unfair. Lots of children might be worried about what to do if they see bullying. Here is some help!

Defenders are nice:

Notice that something is happening

Interpret what is happening: does someone need your help?

Choose what action to take: get a teacher, comfort the target, tell the others, 'We don't like that' (if you feel safe to do so)

Engage with the problem– don't ignore it!
