This week in school...

Dear Parents and Children,

Our week started with an assembly to celebrate Martin Luther King Jr Day; we talked about his dream and how this is still so important for us nowadays.

In Quiz Club we also had a question about this great man and it was super to see that everyone got it right which shows what wonderful listening the children were doing!

It is great to see the children arriving at school in their winter coats and hats, gloves and scarves. The weather has been so very cold, but it is wonderful to be able to wrap up and go out and play in the sunshine! Unfortunately the cold weather has meant that the Cross Country club and event were both cancelled, we are sorry for any inconvenience caused.

This morning in Celebration Assembly Mrs Kelly awarded Hazel class with the trophy for excellent lining up at the end of playtime showing that they are ready to learn. We will be looking out for who will win it next week!

We also awarded the inaugural Presentation awards to children who have really impressed their teachers with their impeccable presentation. Well done to you all!

All our clubs started with great success this week; we are so sorry if your child was disappointed when they were not able to take part in their chosen club. Our teachers have planned for the maximum number for their clubs, and some were very popular! We very much appreciate your understanding with this. We wish you all a happy and healthy weekend.

Kind regards,
Mrs Kelly and Mrs Hall

School Animal update!

Our school "zoo" is thriving. The snails and fish get a lot of attention from the children as they pass them.

Twinkle and Star still love to chew and try and escape but luckily they seem to be contained these days! They are very cheeky rabbits!

Pumpkin and Spice, the guinea pigs, are loving their new 2-storey hutch but have not quite worked out how to use the ramp yet! Now that they are equal in size it is quite tricky to tell which one is which! Dave, the hamster in Elm class is also a cheeky chewer!

Winnie loved listening to children read this week. She is looking forward to her wellbeing walks with children nominated by their teachers. She was delighted to give certificates to 2 children from Year 1 today who have shown what fantastic role models they are—not only for their classmates but for the rest of the school too!

Jack Barry and Ben New—a huge well done, we are so proud of you!

From Sunday's Gospel...

Mark 1:14-20

Jesus calls the fishermen, Simon and Andrew, James and John, to be his disciples.

Please take time to share the Gospel with your children.

Lord Jesus, lead us to join together with other people across the world in helping others, especially those who are poor, so that all people may know that we are your followers. Amen.
